ZEN'S CRIMINAL LAW 1

CASE DIGEST TRACKER

[LAW109] Crim I

Course	CRIMINAL LAW 1	Professor	GUTIERREZ, Ibarra
Course Code	LAW 109	Units	3
Semester	1st Semester, 1L	Block	1-B 2030
Class Schedule	Tuesday, 10-11:30AM Thursday, 10-11:30AM	Room	LAW 307-309
Syllabus		Zen's Reviewer
Block Resources		Zen's Digests	[01] Zen's Crim 1 Di…

Prof Intel
• COOL GUY BEST PROF • fair grader • spokesperson ni leni dati HAHAHHAA • 1 case per person read reyes commentary • memorize case details cos he tends to ask a lot abt the details vv specific • exam is kinda tricky pero kaya siya wid practice • v nice • allows gadgets, and in our time we had one dav online and one day onsite. • his recit questions r also ok, iust read the case. • look at the facts din bc he will also ask for some details there (like where this guy was coming from etc). • he also doesn't assign a lot of cases. for us dati it was less than 10 per class? • - Barry has fun with his lectures! Loves demonstrations, appreciates when you're quirky, but don't veer too much off of the discussion ofc • - He appreciates pop culture references; his favorite student from our class was a guy who quoted movies and anime that Sir also liked and they became good friends. They added each other on Steam at the end of the semester! • - Sir will likely prefer that for every week, one of the two scheduled meetings will be done online. He leaves it up to the class to choose which day is preferred to be the online day. • - Online, sir spins a wheel, and the trick with our class was to ask a hypothetical or follow-up question about the previous topic/case AFTER sir spun the wheel, so that sir would be busy listening to or answering the extra question and the next reciter's name is already up and thus the next reciter can have extra minutes to go over their planned recitation

- - Exams are written and blue-book style, 7-8 questions classic Bar Exam type. Tends to reuse some questions so the current 2Ls who took Barry for Crim 1 might remember their questions, and those questions might be your questions for your exams.
- - He cancels class a bunch because he keeps going on TV to do interviews as a political analyst. He's very knowledgeable on current politics and it'll be easy to just ask him about it! If you ask about the impeachment trial, he might bring up his anecdotes working with Chel Diokno since they both served as Akbayan congressmen hehehe

(BLOCK HANDLING)

- Loud speaker, even in online classes
- Guides you through recitations
- 1 case, 1 person, maybe 2-3 but often its just one
- Marami siyang ginagawang miscellaneous shit
- Read Ah Chong 5 times if you must, even small details he's very nitpicky
- He's a random reciter, you can get called 3 times. 5 times. 0 times, wheel of names
- Slam dunk recit, do it without notes
- Treat it like a conversation, he can tell if you're reading a digest. Be quick/straightforward
- Put a little storytelling
- He summarizes the essence of the case
- Very facts heavy lahat ng cases niya
- Size of knife, color of the pan, ano daw yung baril, who was the lawyer?
- Likes bam aquino & marcoleta
- He likes movies, julia roberts
- IRAC method for exams
- Know your pop culture